Dear Parents/ Carers

We are aware that the holy month of Ramadan is about to commence and that for many families this is an important time.

We are also aware that although Islam makes no requirement for children of primary school age to fast, some children in Y6 may wish to.

Children in any other class will not be allowed to fast in school.

Children in Y6 who have written parental permission to fast may do so but it is important to be aware that they will conduct a normal school day and participate in all the National Curriculum activities.

No child in Y6 will be able to fast unless we have the written permission from a parent.

Yours,

Sally Holder

Co-Headteacher/ Deputy Headteacher
